Engagement

University of Victoria

Sep 2020 - Present (3 months +)

I am currently on the engagement committee for the Giving Tuesday event on 2nd December. Since everything is online, we have come up with new ways to increase our engagement with students! We are trying to reach new and experienced students to help us allocate the funding by our donors for the scholarships, bursaries, financial aid and causes given to students!

Co-President of Marketing

Young Women in Business (YWIB)

Aug 2020 - Present (4 months +)

Working as a Co-President of Marketing for Young Women in Business club at the University of Victoria. I am solely working on creating a blog for the students and members of our club. Since we're working on providing all kinds of information available to all our fellow sisters, we will be posting blogs on ranging topics from academics to business!

For Young Women in Business club, I pitched the idea of a blog for our members and I am the only one who's creating the content for the blog and handling everything related to it! The blog basically works on the idea that we want information on business and other topics that affect a workplace or an entrepreneur to be accessible and more understanding because people from different majors cannot understand all the technical jargon used in business-related pages.

I engage with potential and current members and also use social media to handle the marketing department, which includes promoting events, posting information, answering queries, increasing our reach and creating posts among other things.
