PROJECTS

---

DhuelMart (Online grocery store)

The main aim is to develop this project where customers can purchase and order groceries online. The system is very useful because customers can easily buy the grocery products from home through the internet. The system reduces a lot of work load for customers as well as owners. By this system online grocery shopping the product is directly delivered to the customer address. The system functionality of products and orders is stored on the server side in a web service. This project provides a lot of features to manage the products in a very good manner. This project contains a lot of advanced modules which makes the back end system very powerful.

Tools & Technology Use: HTML, Bootstrap, php, Wordpress, Firsbase Cloud, AWS EC2.
