

Dear Hiring Manager,

This letter is to express my interest in applying for a suitable position in your esteemed organization. I am a seasoned professional with experience of over 15 years in Banking and financial services, enriched experience the areas of Project Planning, implementation & Leadership of settlement/remittance, Budgeting, Regulator Reporting & Analysis, and Treasury Operations.

Throughout my career, I have utilised my leadership, planning and financial skills to consistently increase revenue, reduce cost and drive financial and operational deliverables. I am currently working as Chief Manager (AVP) with ICICI-Treasury Control and Securities Group, Mumbai/Hyderabad.

In my career spanning about over 15 years in the industry, I have worked with HARI OM, HSBC, JPMORGAN, etc. to name a few among others, who have offered me prospects to become accustomed to new environments and enabled me to develop my leadership skills. Working with these industry majors has given me great exposure to explore my true potential and an unparalleled learning experience.

My educational credentials include Masters in commerce from Mumbai University. My eagerness towards excelling in my career has made me complete DFM-Equivalent to MBA. I would definitely want to inculcate my vast learning and insights into my career succession graph in my future global workplace environments.

On work front, I have created an environment that encourages a collaborative workplace to enhance workforce competence along with strong team management abilities, essential to persuade and empower different teams for day-to-day management of key accounts and business development projects, through constant support.

My resume is enclosed for your consideration. In case of any queries or if you wish to schedule an interview, you can reach me at +91 9820706939. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

I appreciate your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Joel Lucas
