

Kinsley Gross

I am a recent TAMU graduate finishing with a 3.4 gpa and a minor in business. My primary language is english but I have studied 2 years of french. Some of the most interesting and beneficial classes i've taken at the university include Principles of Management, Interpersonal Communication, Business and Finance, Accounting, Speech and Debate, and various writing classes.

Professional Skills

- Operating various online software (i.e excel, access, google docs, google drive, google sheets, Microsoft office word, powerpoint)
- Proficient writing in different subjects (i.e technical writing, business documents, health documents, research papers)
- Organizing, online and offline.
- Management

More about me

Along with many of the technical skills i've acquired through experience and college, I am also a military child which I feel has allowed me to improve my interpersonal communication skills, my ability to outreach in many different locations, and overall it has given me a better understanding of the way people live and interact with one another.
