

ILA UPADHYAY

An enthusiastic fresher with highly motivated and leadership skills , currently seeking opportunity as a junior architect in an organisation .Always eager to learn about new technologies and advancementhappening in the industry . Meeting new clients and learning about them makes me excited and how can that be achieved with new technology and without disturbing nature.

“ Just role the prism before the world so that we can see through arcs and corners. A conjugal relationship of art and perspective. Themes which enlarge the pupil size and a reflection which is engraved on retina. ”
