

AKSHAYA M. A

Creative Writer

I am a talented and creative writer and editor with more than 2 years' professional experience. My skills include writing, editing and proofreading a wide range of communications collateral including feature articles, website content, annual reports, newsletters, media releases and fact sheets. I have worked for a broad range of clients including financial services firms, government and non-government agencies, industry bodies and professional consultancies. I am now looking for a permanent role in Communications that will utilise my diverse writing and editing experience and take my career to the next level.
